

Standard Life Investments

Conflicts of Interest Policy Overview

Supporting the Standard Life Group's 'Comply with Law' and 'Comply with Regulations' governing principles, Standard Life Investments has robust procedures in place to ensure compliance with the requirements of our legal frameworks in all the countries in which we operate, and to support us in defining our relationships with stakeholders and meeting our business objectives. Consistent with this approach, our employees must consider the potential legal implications of our activities and ensure that, where relevant, we seek appropriate expert advice.
